参考范文

Dear Jackson,

I'm more than delighted to share my opinion, which I hope will be of some help to you. Frankly, I hold the view that it is perfectly reasonable to study abroad. The reasons are as follows.

To begin with, exposure to a foreign language setting while we are studying abroad makes the learning process engaging and effective. Moreover, bathed in a different culture of a foreign country, we can gain great insights into the world because cross-cultural experiences can give us a global perspective. Studying abroad takes us out of our comfort zone and changes us for the better.

All things considered, I hope you can choose to study abroad and start a new life.

Yours,

Li Hua

One possible version:

Dear Michael,

These days, I am planning to travel abroad during the vacation, because I think traveling abroad is very meaningful. Firstly, it can broaden my horizons. When I visit a foreign country, I can get a better understanding of its customs and history. Meanwhile, I can make some foreign friends there. Besides, communicating with the local people will give me the chance to pick up the language. Most importantly, I can relax myself and admire the beautiful scenery outside China.

Welcome to China when you are free. I do hope you can witness the great changes in China.

Best wishes!

Yours truly,

Li Hua
